

GOVERNOR'S FINDING IN LITTLE CASE MAY BE DELAYED UNTIL LATE FRIDAY

WHITE NOT IN CAPITOL

Decision May Not Come
Until Few Hours Before
Execution Time

ATTORNEY PLEADS

Strong Testimony Is Presented by State

BULLETIN
COLUMBUS, July 21.—Whether leniency will be extended to Arthur Little, convicted Columbus negro "torture murderer", sentenced to die in the electric chair tomorrow will not be decided until a few hours before his scheduled electro-cution, it was announced today at the offices of Governor George White.

The governor was in southern Ohio today attending political conferences and has not yet received the reports of the state parole board which conducted a hearing for Little yesterday.

Arthur Little, late today, was expected to know his fate.

Whether or not he is saved from the electric chair at Ohio penitentiary is up to Governor George White. S. F. Dunkle, the governor's executive secretary, was to transmit the recommendation of the state board of paroles to the governor today following a heated hearing Wednesday when Harry B.
Weaver, Little's attorney, made a touching plea to save the condemned man from the chair, and Prosecutor Emmitt L. Crist and Max C.
Seyfert Jr., his assistant, argued that no commutation should be recommended in the case.

TWO QUESTIONS.
Two questions were stressed most in the hearing with the individual members of the parole board asking numerous questions dealing with the two items. The first was: "Did Arthur Little voluntarily go on the trip to the Kidney home in which John Kidney was murdered and was he influenced by anyone?" The second was:
"What part did the shotgun taken to the scene in Henry Louder-milk's car have to do with the crime?"

Prosecutor Crist beginning the state's argument quoted from the court's record where Little admitted that he went voluntarily to the scene and knew what the trip was for Little's testimony in this line

REDTATE RIBBONS FOR STATE'S FAIR

COLUMBUS, July 21.—"Redated" blue ribbons will be given to victorious exhibitors at the Ohio State Fair this year as an economy move.

Many of the ribbons to be offered will be six years old. The changes, however, won't be noticeable, according to State Fair Manager Charles J. Beer, who says the redating will save the state $600.

CITY HOSPITAL BUSINESS GOOD REPORT SHOWS

Total of $5,553.60 Collected From First of Year to June 31

$1,505 RECEIVABLE

Expenses of same Period
Also Listed

An interesting report of business at Berger hospital from Jan.
1, 1932, to June 30, 1932, was submitted to city council Wednesday evening by Miss Ethel Kirchofer, acting superintendent, through J.
Wallace Crist, safety director.

Collections during the six months' period totalled $5,553.60 with accounts receivable in that time, since Jan. 1, being $1,505.85.

Business at Berger hospital has been good according to the report.
202 TREATED
When the new year began there were seven patients in the institution. One hundred and sixty-nine had been admitted at the end of June with 202 persons, in all, treated. Eight persons died there and 23 births were recorded. If July were added to this report the figures on births would be considerably higher. One hundred and sixty-three patients had been discharged on June 31 and 102 of those admitted to the institution underwent operations. The total days care was 1,520.

EXPENSES LISTED
Expenses at the hospital were also listed in Miss Kirchofer's report. Provisions cost $1,426.05; laundry, $923.96; fuel and light, $495.39; medical and surgical supplies, $943.65; salaries, $4,742.65; and other expenses, $282.63.

Miss Kirchofer, who succeeded Miss Marie Robertson as superintendent on July 1, reported that collections during June totalled $531.46.

STEPS TAKEN TO ASSIST VETERANS

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The first step in the effort of the federal government to form a national policy for veterans' relief was accomplished today when letters went to the heads of all national veterans' organizations asking that they make complete recommendations for drastic economies in future handlings of veterans' affairs.

Rep. McDuffie, (D), of Alabama, chairman of the House select committee on a congressional joint committee formed under the terms of the economy bill, dispatched the letters following a conference with Brig. Gen. Frank Hines, administrator of veterans' affairs. Mc-Duffie pointed out that more than $860,000,000 has been spent since the war on pensions and other benefits to ex-soldiers, with the bill mounting each year, and that scientific formation of a policy for the future is essential to keep this item from swallowing too great a percentage of government revenue.

SMITH, SENATOR; WAGNER, GOVERNOR

NEW YORK, July 21.—Presidency candidate for United States Senator Wagner would become the Democratic candidate for Governor of New York, and Alfred E. Smith, former Governor, the candidate for Senator to succeed Wagner, was discussed today in Democratic political circles.

Official confirmation was lacking, but although Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt is eager to have Lieut. Gov. Lehman become Governor, it was believed he might endorse the proposed state slate so as to make his peace with Smith, his opponent at the Chicago democratic convention.

The Smile of a King-To-Be

A smile is the same in any language or in any stratum of society and the delightful expression of this little prince speaks volumes. He is Prince Leopold, only son of Prince Leopold, heir to the throne of Belgium, shown with his sister, Princess Josephine Charlotte. The boy, now two years old, is in direct line of succession to the Belgian throne. This photo was made by special permission of the children's parents in the grounds of the royal Chateau du Stuyvenberg, Brussels.

Brutal Father Guarded In Scioto County Prison

PORTSMOUTH, July 21.—With the citizenry aroused over the alleged cruelties administered to 14-year-old Andrew Kilby who was found chained to a post yesterday, Paul Kilby, 33, the boy's father, was held under close guard at the county jail today.

Paul Kilby, according to the charges of neighbors, chained the boy to a post for two days as punishment for swimming after dark Sunday night. Officials indicated today that serious court action may be taken against the father.

RACKETEERS SLAIN TODAY

Notorious Chicago Labor Head and Body-guard, Hunted
By Police, Killed.

SHAWANO, Wis., July 21.—A notorious Chicago labor racketeer and his bodyguard were ruthlessly slain by a machine gun squad at the rear of a roadhouse near here today.

The victims were Patrick "Paddy" Berrell, vice president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, local 25, and Willie Marks, alias William Melnechuck, a former "Bugs" Moran Gangster, long sought as a bandit and a killer.

A third Chicago police character, Clarence Gleason, brother-in-law of Marks, remained in the roadhouse while Berrell and Marks stepped out for a breath of air. He was held today by Wisconsin authorities.

Also held for questioning was an attractive blonde who accompanied Berrell when he came here eight days ago. She refused to give her name.

Police learned that Berrell and the girl had apparently come to this peaceful Wisconsin region for a rest. They had been seen driving an expensive car. Marks and Gleason arrived last night.

WILSON SEEKS DAMAGES FOR GUN INJURIES

Sum of $15,075 Asked From Weldon Youth as Results of Gun Wounds

HAPPENED IN 1931

Carelessness In Handling
Gun is Charged

Dwight H. "Pinky" Wilson, 1112
S. Washington-st., well-known youth has filed a suit in common pleas court against William Weldon, a minor, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. T.
Weldon, 414 S. Court-st., asking judgment of $15,075, as the result of being wounded in December, 1931.

The plaintiff's petition states that he was standing beside a parked auto on the Darbyville-pk., two miles west of Circleville, on December 7, 1931. The defendant, young Weldon, was inside the auto and carelessly and negligently operated and handled a shot gun, forcing its contents into the right leg and knee of the plaintiff, the petition asserts.

CITES CARELESSNESS
Wilson's petition further alleges that the defendant was careless in that he held the gun so as to have it in the range of the plaintiff; he leveled the gun at the plaintiff knowing it to be loaded, he knew the safety device was not locked; he failed to lock the safety device and he pulled the trigger so as to cause the gun to discharge.

As a result of the shooting the plaintiff has lost wages of $30 per week for 22 weeks, was confined in the hospital for eleven days with a medical bill of $75 and will be partially disabled during the rest of his life, the petition concludes. The total amount of damage and judgment asked is $15,075 and costs of the case.

Morton J. Nepp of Columbus is attorney for Wilson.

Effort To Force $1 Wheat Aired

Benefit to Whole Nation Outlined by North Dakota
Farm Group Who Plan to Hold Wheat Crop
For Better Price

Editor's note: In the following article Dell E. Willis, of Tolna, N. former tells of the movement which he is leading to return wheat prices to $1 a bushel.

By DELL E. WILLIS.
(Copyright, 1932, By the International News Service.)

TOLNA, N. Dak., July 21.—It will benefit the whole country to get behind our movement to boost the price of wheat to $1 a bushel, for general prosperity will not be restored until the farmer regains his purchasing power.

The movement got underway when farmers in this section met and resolved to hold their wheat on the farm until such a time as there is a demand for the grain at our set price, effective Aug. 1.

If the movement is successful, all wheat throughout the country will be kept off the market until the benefit of the import tariff is received. Each township is to be organized, the agreements of the producers to be kept in the office of the township clerk.

Farmers in each township will check up on the neighbors and see that they hold their wheat until the set price is reached. Thereafter, they will sell only 10 per cent of their wheat per month.

This is a non-political movement and there is no membership fee.
So far, the plan has been enthusiastically received in North Dakota, which probably will produce one-sixth of the nation's wheat output in 1932.

FOR BEST GRADE

Our agreed price is to be based on Winnipeg quotations. The one dollar for the best grade.

In case of farmers not having storage room, they will be allowed to place their wheat in elevators and take storage tickets. They will not be allowed to sell more than 10 per cent a month, however.

We are to hold a meeting at Settlers Park, Lakota, N. D., July 24, when the plan will be discussed and new recruits will be sought.

100 DEGREE MARK IS HIT

Temperature Remains Above 70 Mark all Through Night; Relief Forecast.

With a new heat mark of 100 degrees established Wednesday, residents of Circleville and vicinity continued to sweeter in an unlimited heat wave Thursday.

Rain began to fall here at 2:25
p. m. today.

Wednesday night was the hottest of the year. The mercury stayed above the 70 mark all through the night, according to Dr. H. R.
Clarke.

Temperatures were again expected to soar above the 100 mark Thursday afternoon, as the mercury was up to 96 degrees at noon.
Dr. Clarke's weather thermometer disclosed.

Although no complete heat prostrations have been reported, physicians report that there are a number of cases of summer gripe.

Weather forecasters hoped Thursday morning that relief would be sent in the form of a heavy rain, but as the heat wave continued Thursday afternoon, all hopes of such relief vanished.

FLEMING ADMITS CHARGE IS FINED

Editor of 'Scandal Sheet' Says
Information Given Him
Was Wrong.

HAMILTON, July 21.—Grover W.
Fleming, editor of a weekly newspaper, unexpectedly pleaded guilty to a charge of criminal libel in common pleas court today.

He was sentenced to six months in jail, $500 fine, and costs. Judge Clinton Boyd promised, however, that the jail sentence will be suspended if fine and costs are paid.

Fleming, who admitted publishing an erroneous story about Charles R. Lucas of Xenia, declared that false information was given him by two Middletown newspapermen, and volunteered to go before a county grand jury and present letters as proof.

Prosecutor Martin Morgenthaler accordingly called a special meeting of the Butler-co grand jury for 1:30 p. m. today when Fleming will be a witness against his alleged informers.

The publisher was also arranging to pay the fine and costs to escape serving a jail sentence.

TO STUDY OFFERS
Committees of city council are expected to meet within a few days to study offers of the Southern Ohio Electric Co. and the Ohio Water Service Co. to aid the city's finances.

Although recommendations were read in adjourned session of council they were not made public and will not be until definitely acted upon in regular council session.

It is understood, however, that both utilities have made concessions.

U. S. TO AID POOR THRU RED CROSS

Plan to Distribute Clothing to Destitute Aired by Payne Today

COTTON PROVIDED

Hoover's Signature
Awaited to Bill

WASHINGTON, July 21.—For the first time in history, the federal government is about to directly disturbed clothing to its destitute citizens through the agencies of the American Red Cross.

This was revealed today by Judge John Barton Payne, chairman of the Red Cross, who said his organization awaits the signing of an appropriation bill by President Hoover to commence distribution of clothing to the country's needy.

Women and children's cotton dresses, stockings, sweaters, coats and men's clothing will be distributed throughout the country a few days after the President signs the bill appropriating the necessary funds for the federal family board to release 500,000 boxes of cotton donated to the Red Cross by act of congress, Judge Payne said.

USE OWN METHODS
The bill authorizes us to distribute the cotton by whatever methods we deem advisable," he added. "We have arranged to exchange the raw cotton for ready-made cotton garments and will be able to commence distribution shortly after the bill is signed by the President.

Members of the cotton trade institute are prepared to supply the raw cotton, and the government will change for the raw cotton as soon as we receive it.

NEW OPTIMISM FOLLOWS MOVE

Asks Loan Companies Accept Certificates At Face Value
On Loans.

COLUMBUS, July 21.—New business optimism resulted in Ohio today as Frank McGuire, state superintendent of building and loans launched an attempt to put more money in circulation and facilitate the sale of real estate.

Acceptance of certificates of deposit at face value on mortgage loans was recommended to all building and loan associations in a letter sent out to all parts of the state by McGuire.

STEP FAVORED
Commerce Director Theodore Tangeman declared the action is a definite step "toward normality."

McGuire suggested the various associations amend their by-laws to permit acceptance of certificates of deposit or similar credits on mortgage loans. First, however, he said, they must be sure they have sufficient assets to meet all claims.

Pointing out that "heroic efforts" are being made by all public-spirited citizens to relieve distress and restore confidence, Mc-Guire said:

"It has been suggested that you could aid in the present situation and serve our depositors and borrowers of withdrawable stock by permitting mortgages of the association a credit on their present mat-tured obligations equal to the amount of the face value of certificates or withdrawable stock of the association holding the matured mortgage debt."

McGuire also enclosed a proposed amendment to the by-laws to provide for the proposed action.

Congressman Mel G. Underwood of New Lexington, representing the eleventh district, of Ohio, in which Pickaway-co is included, is in the House of Representatives.

His statement says that he believes the only satisfactory way to settle the question is to submit it to the people. He voted against the beer-for-revenue bill.
His Republican opponent at the coming election, David J. Lewis of New Lexington, also favors resubmission.

Treaty Ohio Aid Bulkley Claims

WASHINGTON, July 21.—(Special to The Herald).—Likening the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Seaway to a minor surgical operation to relieve an obstruction in the circulation of commerce of the North American continent, Senator Robert J. Bulkley today asserted that the interest of Ohio demand early completion of that project. His comment was called forth by the announcement of completion of a treaty between Canada and the United States looking to inauguration of construction on the final link in the St. Lawrence Seaway.

"Ohio's ports, fresh water harbors though they be, rank with the leading shipping centers of the world," Senator Bulkley asserted. "Toledo, handling seventeen million tons annually, is the sixth port in the United States; Cleveland is fifth. Ohio's seven ports rank among the first twenty-five in the United States in the point of tonnage. Their normal tonnage amounts to more than 55,000,000 tons, almost half the total for the Great Lakes.

POSITION STRATEGIC

"The strategic position of Ohio's shoreline in the system of great lakes has been an important factor in the development of Ohio's industry and commerce. However, the enormous advantages which are possible for Ohio from its favorable position on this chain of inland lakes will never be fully realized until the Great Lakes are linked with the sea so that ocean-going ships can dock at Great Lake ports.

"When a cargo can be shipped direct from Toledo, Cleveland, Ashland or Conneaut to Liverpool, Bremen or Rio de Janeiro, Ohio's factories will be better able to take their proper place in world trade. The St. Lawrence Seaway will, from the standpoint of transportation costs, bodily move Ohio hundreds of miles closer to the Atlantic seaboard. The radius of Ohio's potential market would thus be extended many hundreds of miles both in continental United States and abroad.

"The Great Lakes system is already a water rout to the sea—a route which is not available only because a short stretch of rapids in the St. Lawrence River prohibits navigation at that point.

DAM PROPOSED

"It is proposed that the River be dammed here and great still-water pools created which will permit free sailing of ocean-going vessels from salt water to the head of navigation.

"This project might be likened to a minor surgical operation to relieve an obstruction in the circulation of commerce of the North American continent. The operation is no great undertaking from the standpoint of engineering, and not costly when the relative benefits are weighed against the expenses.

"Obviously, the interests of Ohio demand early completion of the St. Lawrence Seaway. I have spoken and I consider the project of great national benefit. Forty millions of American citizens will receive direct and indirect benefit from the removal of the obstructions to navigation which now form the cork in the bottle-neck of the Great Lakes."

Women Fliers to Compete For Trophy and Cash Awards

WOMEN IN SPEED TESTS TO FORM SPECTACLE OF RACES

CLEVELAND (July 21)—Introduced women fliers hurtling over a 10-mile course at more than 210 m. p. h. will form a thrilling spectacle at the Cleveland Airport Sunday, Sept. 4.

This will be in the 50-mile Cleveland Pneumatic Aerial Trophy Race for women pilots only, one of the main features of the National Air Races to be staged here Aug. 27 to Sept. 5. The race for the Aerial Trophy and a $5,000 cash purse is the women's major closed course event of the 10-day aviation classic.

Belief that the Aerial Trophy will be won at a speed surpassing the world's straightaway landplane record for women has led the National Air Race contest committee to raise the qualifying mark to 175 m. p. h. No woman pilot whose plane does not exceed this speed will be allowed to enter.

The women's straightaway record was established by Miss Ruth Nichols at Carlton, Mich., in April, 1931, when she attained a speed of 210.636 m. p. h. with her "Wasp" powered Lockheed "Vega" monoplane.

Time trials for the contesting planes in the Aerial Trophy Race will be made over a one-mile straightaway that has been laid out in front of the air race grandstand. The race itself will be live laps around the 10-mile triangular course adopted this year for high speed events.

The converted Aerial Trophy was first offered in 1929 by the Cleveland Pneumatic Tool Co. of this city, as the prize in a women's cross-country air derby from Santa Monica, Calif., to Cleveland.

It was won that year by Mrs. Phoebe Omlie of Memphis, Tenn.

The following year it was posted as the prize for a similar race from Long Beach, Calif., to Chicago, where the 1930 National Air Races were held. Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell piloted her plane to Chicago in 15 hr. and 13 min. to win.

The award was offered in 1931

AVERAGED 187 PER
as the annual prize for the Women's closed course speed classic, and was won by Maude Tait Moriarity of Springfield, Mass. She averaged 187.374 m. p. h. over the 50-mile course.

Granville Bros. Aircraft, Inc., Springfield, Mass., is now rebuilding Mrs. Moriarity's two-place Gee Bee Y for entry in the 1932 Aerial Trophy Race. With the refinements that are being effected, she hopes to win the trophy a second time.

The Aerial Trophy was produced at a cost of some $3,000, and is one of the handsomest ever offered for a competitive sporting event. It is solid silver throughout, even to the base. The design is symbolic of women in aviation, holds a plane with her arms outstretched

BEHIND the SCENE In HOLLYWOOD

By HARRISON CARROLL.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., July 21.—Catching the Olympic fever, R-K-O is rushing into production today with "Sport Page," Jerry Horwin's story of a hardboiled newspaper scribe.

With time pressing the casting of this picture turned into a last minute scramble for players. Columbia was persuaded to lend Constance Cummings to take the female lead opposite Joel McCrea. Another frantic call to M. G. M. garnered Robert Young for an important part.

In the comedy lead, you'll find your old friend, Benny Rubin, who has been playing hookey from Hollywood for many months now. David Selznick has had camera-men at all the recent Olympic try-outs to get atmospheric shots for "Sport Page." The first work with the cast begins today under the direction of Casey Robinson.

Wildest of all Hollywood premieres was the opening of "Strange Interlude," Eugene O'Neill's famous drama of Asides.

Fusing his way into the theater after three strenuous hours at the mike, Jimmie Duranto exclaimed:

"Seems like a lot of fuss just to hear a bunch of actors speak their minds."

BOULEVARD GOSSIP.

Another near-unknown is on the verge of getting a contract with Samuel Goldwyn. She is Phyllis du Barry, English actress, who has been playing out here in a musical called "Hullabaloo" Miss du Barry, whose name is to be changed, has taken a test and Goldwyn holds an option on her services. She is a brunette and has done a number of musical comedy leads in Australia.

Rumor is, the producer wants her for one of the parts in "Cynara."

Was it the spirit of "Laugh Clown, Laugh" that inspired Buster Keaton to give that fantastic dance at the Frolics on the night his separation story broke? Helene Millard and John Preston have been dining together in the intimacy of Starks Bohemian cafe.

Air sickness plus a bad throat sent Kay Francis to her bed on her arrival here from the East. She's still under the weather.

Now that the honeymoon is over, Sharon Lynn will come back to the screen as the vamp in "The Big Broadcast." She's married you know, to Barney Glaser, former... Stamp... have a fellow... kinks out of the story... But without either... bard or Richard Arden... Westcott is one of the few... bers of the cast to be retained... Director Henry King is a stickler for detail. He flew to Arizona to get a prize pig for the picture "State Fair." Many of these slaves in de Mille's "The Sign of the Cross" will be athletes from Southern California colleges. These lads draw $10 a day... Returning travelers are Helen Gahagan and Melvyn Douglas. She goes into rehearsal for the coast production of "The Cat and the Fiddle" while he awaits a picture assignment from Samuel Goldwyn.

That threatened breakdown of Lilyan Tashman wasn't as serious as first reports indicated. Hollywood's most daring style queen is well enough to accept a picture engagement in Tiffany's "Those We Love." She replaces Evelyn Brent who withdrew from the cast at the last minute after an argument over billing. This is the picture in which Mary Astor makes her screen comeback.

DIANS HOME WITH RECORDS

Best Mark in Years Made On Recent Eastward Swing; Plan to Meet Yankees.

CLEVELAND, July 21.—The Cleveland Indians came home today from the most successful eastern trip ever made by a Cleveland ball club.

Following Mel Herder's 8 to 1 victory over the Boston Red Sox yesterday, the Redskins boosted their triumph in the eastern invasion to 14 out of 18 games played. They came home high up in the American league fight, 10 games higher than they were when they left home less than three weeks ago.

MEET YANKS
Today and tomorrow they will rest, but Friday night they will resume their battle for the league flag when they set out for Chicago for a three-game series. A "crucial series" is anticipated when the Yankees come here Tuesday. Herder's performance in winning the last game of the eastern trip was almost as brilliant as that of Wes Ferrell when he shut out the Red Sox the day before. Herder also would have had a shut-out but for a streak of wildness in the last inning.

Big Bob Kline, the Columbus, O. rovide who has been pitching so well for Boston, was no puzzle to the ambitious Indians yesterday. "Clubb'd for 10 hits in 6 1-3 innings, he was forced to retire."

Burnett, Averill, Vosmik, Morgan, Sewell and Cissell trained their guns on Kline in the seventh, driving over five runs. Jablonowski succeeded Kline with Ed Gallagher, college boy left-hander, finishing the game.

BOSTON—A "moratorium" on fishing on the Bay State's principal rivers, has been declared, starting next spring, in an effort to insure a larger supply of trout and other fresh water fish for future years.

BIRDS IN SPLIT

MILWAUKEE, July 21.—Riding in fourth place after splitting even with the Brewers yesterday, the Columbus Red Birds started for home today to get ready for an invasion by the Louisville American association team Saturday.

Losing the first game 7 to 4 and winning the second, 9 to 6, the Ohio team took the series from the Brewers, three games to one. Many pitchers were used. Even in victory, Columbus used Grabowski, Blake and Weinert.

Toledo took a 7 to 0 defeat from Kansas City yesterday.

BOYS CATCH GATOR

DEATH AGAIN SHOWS IN THE CARDS

In the room where George Carl, Chicago grocer, was shot to death sixty hours after the cards of Mrs. Susan Ballo (above), amateur seerss had predicted that end for him, Mrs. Ballo again shuffled and dealt her pack of ill-fortune telling cards and again the figures of death appeared. Detectives staged this scene Tuesday but the cards gave no clue to the person who ended Carl's life.

U.S. TO AID

cotton has been caused by the fact that it necessitated passage of two bills by Congress before the farm board agreed to release the cotton. The first bill, authorizing the broad to give 500,000 bales of cotton, has already been signed by the president. The board, however, declared they could not give us the cotton until another bill was passed appropriating the cost of the cotton. This was done and now awaits the President's signature.

EXCHANGE GOODS.
"Under the provisions of the first bill, we are entitled to exchange the cotton for manufactured goods or have it woven."

"We have decided to commence by exchanging cotton for both cloth and ready made clothes. This will insure immediate distribution. Many of our chapters throughout the country report they can have the cloth made up in their local communities."

"After distribution gets underway, we shall place orders with manufacturers to have our own cotton woven into cloth."

"Indications are that Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and Michigan will require the largest supplies of clothing. We base this on the amount of flour distributed to those states under the act of Congress which gave us 40,000,000 bushels of government wheat for relief of distress."

"Pennsylvania received 398,287 barrels of flour, Illinois 123,000 barrels, Ohio 283,000 barrels, and Michigan 158,000 barrels."

"We have endeavored to ascertain the need for clothing by sending out questionnaires to the 3600 Red Cross chapters throughout the country, asking the number of persons who needed clothing."

"So far we have received answer to only 110 per cent of the questionnaires sent out. These show a very decided need exists throughout the country for clothing."

TWO TEAMS QUIT

DAYTON, July 21.—Canton and South Bend, Ind., teams probably will be dropped by the Central baseball league this week, according to President F. W. Howell, who indicated that the league will continue with four teams.

Both teams are having financial difficulties.

When Canton served notice of its desire to surrender its franchise, Howell abandoned plans for getting a major league team to take over South Bend for a farm and continuing in the race.

TUCSON, Ariz.—Arizona will pay more than $10,000 to give Clifford Adkins, the first man ever found guilty in this state of kidnapping, a chance for freedom.

Judge a pauper by the superior court which sentenced him to a life term for the abduction of a banker, Adkins has filed his appeal to the supreme court.

He writes: "I've tried extreme dieting, setting out on exercises with very little results—but the results from my exercise are almost incredible. In 3 months I reduced from 205 to 179 pounds and feel stronger than ever—no more wheezing or gasping for breath—friends say I look 100 per cent better."

Be in mind, you fat men that there is danger in too much fat. The safe way to reduce one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of water every morning—and eat a fatty meal and sweets—will make that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle—got it at any drugstore in the world—Adv.

LITTLE CASE

was brought out to contradict Lacey Adams' statement that Walker Brown and Loudmilk forced the others to go. The question of why Little's actual confession was not in the court record was asked state's attorneys who replied that witnesses who heard the confession were called.

DEALS WITH LAW.
The prosecutor's argument dealt almost entirely with the actual law. He said: "All the men in this case were principals in the eyes of the law. They committed a robbery and a man was killed and although Arthur Little did not strike the blows which caused John Kidney's death the fact that he was a participant in the robbery makes him as guilty as the actual killer."

Mr. Weaver was then given the floor and pleaded for mercy for Little claiming that he was the only man of the six who told the complete truth throughout the case. He said the negro had always been truthful and straight forward and was never a participant in a crime.

The statement that Little told the truth in the crime was disputed by Attorney Seyfert who stated Little had never disclosed even to his own attorney that he had a weapon with him on Dec. 10 when the murder was committed. Seyfert explained that when Little's confession was taken not a mention was made of a weapon in Little's hands. He (Seyfert) after reading the confession called Sheriff Radcliff who with his deputies learned from Little that he had a shotgun when he did his part in the crime. Instead of asking the negro whether or not he had the shotgun, the deputies were posted to ask him what he did with the gun and, knowing that the other men in the crime had confessed, Little admitted that he carried the shotgun from Loudmilk's car and brought it back with him.

PLANS FOLLOWED.
From Little's own statements, Mr. Seyfert pointed out the plans for the robbery, that Brown was selected to be the man that Adams was to the him after he was struck, that John Hairston was to rush upstairs and that Little was to go into the third room to learn whether or not anyone was there. Little never admitted what he would have done had there been some one there. Another thing pointed out by Mr. Seyfert was: "Although Arthur Little denies striking Sarah Kidney, the man's invalid sister, and says he did not take any active part in the cruel treatment given her he was fully aware of what had happened. He made no effort to halt Walker Brown when that man struck John Kidney the second time while the aged man was trying to arise from the floor while bound."

"Arthur Little took his share of the 'blood money' taken from the Kidney home after it had been spread on the table and divided into six parts."

Both state's attorneys met each defense statement and told the board of paroles that Mr. Weaver, Little's counsel, had stated that Little was sentenced to die and appeal would be taken and that the man had received a fair trial.

FOLLOWING TESTIMONY.
In his closing statement, Seyfert emphatically begged the board not to disturb the verdict of the 10 men and two women who decided that Little should die. "This man, Mr. Seyfert said, 'was the fifth tried and testimony introduced must have thoroughly convinced the jury hearing the merits of the case that Little was guilty as charged and deserved to die because after a man in the same crime had been granted mercy in the case of Frank Smith it is doubly hard to convict any following defendant imposing the death penalty such as in this case.'"

Link Many Screen Stars In Hollywood Romance

BY TED SMITS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., July 21.—Romance has flared often in Hollywood since the start of the year, with such stellar names as Jean Harlow, Joan Bennett, Ruth Chatterton, Ann Dvorak, Greta Nissen, and Una Markie figuring in the marriages and reported engagements.

Outstanding in the social ceremonies that drew the elite of movieland were those uniting Joan Bennett with Gene Markey and Jean Harlow with Paul Bern.

The romance of Miss Harlow, the first and most glamorous of the platinum blondes, and Bern, prominent studio executive, took Hollywood by surprise. Almost without warning the two applied for their marriage license, and a few days later the ceremony was performed at the home of Miss Harlow's parents.

The wedding of the youngest of the Bennett sisters to Markey, well known author, was a brilliant affair attended by Hollywood's "400." Their love affair began when Miss Bennett was injured and Markey started visiting her at the hospital to cheer her up.

Ruth Chatterton and George Brent are expected to marry in New York some time in August after Ralph Forbes, present husband of the noted actress, has obtained a divorce in Reno where he is now establishing his residence.

The affections of Jack Gilbert, one of the most dashing heroes of the silent screen, was captured by Virginia Bruce, a newcomer to films. Their marriage is expected soon.

Leslie Fenton, film actor, and Ann Dvorak, one of the blazing new successes of the speaking screen, are now on a belated honeymoon after a quiet ceremony several months ago.

The American consumer is always wrong. If it isn't a lack of sales resistance it is too much sales resistance.

Greta Nissen, Swedish "vamp" and Weldon Heyburn, married away by plane for their marriage ceremony at Yuma, Ariz.

Another romance united Tom Mix, noted screen cowboy, and Mabel Hubbard Ward, famous circus aerialist. Still others to have wed in recent months were Una Merkle and Ronald Buria, and Carmen Pantages and John Considine, Jr.

The names of two noted boxers have figured in other Hollywood rumors. Jack Dempsey, one-time heavyweight champion, has been seen "squirreling around" Lina Basquette, dashing brunette dancer. Following announcement of their joint stage tour, however, Hollywood, which is accustomed to press agent stunts, was inclined to take less seriously their reported attachment. The report persists that Dempsey and Estelle Taylor from whom he was recently divorced, have become reconciled.

Max Baer, another heavyweight, and Dorothy Dunbar, stage actress, who filed divorce proceedings, are reported to have become reconciled having been seen frequently together at Reno where they were married.

MORTUARY THIEVES
ROCK ISLAND, Ill.—One of the strangest theft on record here was reported recently. A rough box, valued at $8, was taken from the mortuary of Hodgson and Hoban. The thieves apparently used a truck.

The committee was instructed by Skinner to make a "thorough, scientific study of financing public school education in Ohio."

CONDITION "BAD"

Meanwhile the Ohio Educational Association officials said the present financial condition of the schools was "bad." In an editorial in the "Ohio Schools," its official publication, a special session of the legislature was suggested. The article, written by Vernon M. Riegel, of Columbus, in part said:

"A special session of the General Assembly is positively needed for school relief. However, the legislature is not likely to be convened for that purpose, primarily because the school people are making no demand whatsoever for it."

"School systems on every hand are on the verge of collapse and the general crash will come within the next year. Is any one so blind who can not foretell the destructive effects upon education of our schools being plunged into this maelstrom of economic chaos, untempered by political selfishness, commercial avarice and plutocratic greed?"

"We are sure that school affairs are in very bad shape and that nothing is being done to get relief for next year. What will the outcome be? I leave off as I began by declaring that special legislative session is absolutely necessary for school relief."

Recipes

This year more than ever before home makers are going to do considerable canning in the home. Especially since the prices of fruits and vegetables are so low in comparison to other years.

Up to the present time women have considered the work of canning fruits and vegetables as one of the most dreaded tasks, however, even canning has proved to be such a fine method that more and more people will be using it this year.

All fruits and vegetables may be canned in the oven. Fruits should be chosen very carefully; only fresh, solid, fruits should be used. Some of the general facts to be remembered are:

Vegetables should be pre-cooked in boiling water for a short time before packing in sterilized jars varying from 5 to 10 minutes depending on the firmness of the vegetable. After vegetable has been packed in the jars add the salt (one teaspoon salt to one quart) pour on the boiling water just to the neck of the jar.

Lids and rubbers should be sterilized before they are placed on the can. Turn lid tight and then back 1-2 turns, place cans on the over rack, at a time having the oven preheated at 300 deg. for ten minutes. Set dial at 250 deg. for the sterilization period. Corn, beans, peas, greens and all vegetable combination should be sterilized for 3 hours; carrots should be sterilized for 1 1/2 hours and tomatoes for 50 minutes for a quart and 40 minutes for pint jars. The syrup for filling jars should be made with three parts of sugar to two parts of water.

After jars have been filled and lids have been placed according to directions given for vegetables the cans should be placed in an oven which has been preheated for 10 minutes at 300 deg. and then turned back to 275 deg. for the time required to sterilize.

Apples require 60 minutes; plums 50 minutes; peaches, pears and all berries 45 minutes. The time given above should be used for quarts only. Pint jars require 10 minutes less time.

At close of sterilization period, remove cans one at a time, tighten lids. Invert cans to test but cool in upright positions.

LAUDS ADVERTISING

GREEN RIVER, Wyo.—Cattlemen should advertise if they are going to make profit. Charles D. Carey, chairman of the national livestock and meat board recently told delegates to the sixteenth annual convention of the Wyoming Stock Growers association. Carey pointed to the "Eat Meat" slogans newspapers and other periodicals which had been distributed in as an example of advertising that would bring results to the industry.
